3. PROMOTION AND APPLICATION OF THE CODE

This Code is appropriately communicated to all EUROPCAR MOBILITY GROUP employees and, when required, to EUROPCAR MOBILITY GROUP's various interlocutors. It is available to all employees on the company intranet, as well as from the Department of Communication.

EUROPCAR MOBILITY GROUP's employees are all specifically trained regarding the Code's application and they promote the Code's principles and commitment while ensuring that it is applied at all time. t.

EUROPCAR MOBILITY GROUP's Executive Committee will conduct an annual review of the Code's proper application and its broad distribution.

Assistance and advice can be obtained from the Group's Compliance Committee. Its purpose is to help any employee who wishes to correctly apply the Code's principles and commitments, entirely confidentially and with the assurance that answers will be provided within a reasonable time frame.

This Committee will deliver in due course a report to EUROPCAR MOBILITY GROUP's Management Board, with suggestions of initiatives and actions that it deems useful or necessary to guarantee the enduring nature of the pledges contained in EUROPCAR MOBILITY GROUP's Code of Ethics and Commitments.

This Committee does not, in any way, replace existing structures and processes involved in the implementation of this Code (e.g. the management system, the Human Resources Department, employee representatives, the labor mediator and any other department involved (Legal, Internal Audit, Environment, etc.)). Nor is the Committee an appeals board that reviews management decisions or actions contrary to the principles of the Code.
